COMMERCIAL USE & MODEL AGREEMENT

Artemisian is a non-commercial photographic experience. Commercial publication or sale of work created at an Artemisian event is outside the usual Artemisian ethos and is permitted only where the relevant model has agreed to that specific use through this agreement. We recommend that photographers discuss with each model whether a share of any resulting income or profit should be agreed, with the percentage and terms agreed directly between the photographer and model.

IMPORTANT

The photographer may not sell, licence or pass the model's images, video, BTS material or these permissions to another person, company or brand without the model's separate written permission. Advertising, billboards, brand campaigns, product packaging or third-party commercial endorsement are NOT included and require separate written agreement.

CREDITING

Any photographs, video or BTS material used under this agreement must credit the photographer, all identifiable models and Artemisian / the event organiser, where the platform allows.

ARTEMISIAN

This agreement gives permission only for the photographer's use of photographs, video and BTS material of the model. It does not give permission to use the Artemisian name, logo or branding in a way that suggests Artemisian Ltd sponsors or endorses the photographer's publication, product or commercial project. The photographer is responsible for obtaining permission from any other identifiable models appearing in the photographs or footage.

MODELS AGREEMENT

I have read and understood the permissions I am giving above. I understand that I can choose YES or NO for each individual use, and that uses I have not authorised are not permitted.
